

Jewish Family & Children's Service of Monmouth County

Donor Confidentiality Policy

Jewish Family & Children's Service of Monmouth County maintains lists of names, addresses, giving history, and other pertinent data for those who have supported us financially or otherwise have indicated an interest in our organization's mission or activities.

As policy, Jewish Family & Children's Service of Monmouth County does not sell or exchange its list with any other organization.

When renting outside mailing lists Jewish Family & Children's Service of Monmouth County, will not rent or buy names from political candidates, partisan political organizations or organizations that spend a substantial amount of their time lobbying. Lists will not be rented from organizations whose purpose or reputation would damage the goodwill and trust between the organization and its donors.

It is the intention of Jewish Family & Children's Service of Monmouth County to retain the trust of its donors.